

Let's Meet the Speakers

Gary Woods, MD, is a current board member of Temescal Wellness—Alternate Treatment Centers. He has served on boards for New Hampshire Orthopaedic Society, American Medical Association, American Society for Surgery of the Hand and is a past president of the NH Medical Society.

Angela Yerdon McLeod, DO, completed a fellowship in Women's Health at ECU, then joined the faculty at NH Dartmouth FMR in Concord, NH. Her clinical and research interests include family centered maternity, neonatal care, breastfeeding medicine, contraception management and postpartum mood disorders.

Paul M. Berman, MD, MBA, is a Pediatrician, Pediatric Hospitalist, and Pediatric Emergency Physician. He serves as a Contact Expert for several radio and television stations and is a frequent lecturer on many pediatric topics.

Elisa Mercurio, DO, is dedicated to helping her patients influence the trajectory of their health by reversing the biological forces that cause chronic disease. She is certified in family and functional medicine and practices in Derry, NH.

Steve Rust, MD, FACP, recently assumed the role of Executive Medical Director of Capital Region Palliative Care and Hospice. Prior to that, he was the Director of the Palliative Care Fellowship program in Anchorage, Alaska, in collaboration with the AK Family Medicine Residency Program and University of Washington School of Medicine.

Alexandra (Sasha) Kufnec, MD, completed a Triple Board Residency (Pediatrics, Adult and Child/Adolescent Psychiatry) at Tufts. After 13 years working in community mental health, she joined the faculty of NH Dartmouth Family Medicine Residency in 2007, where she enjoys teaching and consulting.

Lora Council, MD, MPH, is the senior vice president of the Primary Care Service Line for Dartmouth-Hitchcock and a practicing family physician in the Nashua division. She continues to lead DH Primary care in the QuEST (Quality, Experience, Sustainability, and Teamwork) to improve primary care for patients and teams.

Tina Kenyon, ACSW, is a faculty member at the NH Dartmouth Family Medicine Residency Program in Concord, NH. Her responsibilities include resident and medical student education, curriculum development, advising and coaching. She has contributed to the skill development of faculty, primary care residents and other health care professionals for 27 years.

Michael McLeod, DO, is a family medicine provider and Physician Informaticist with Concord Hospital Medical Group. He has been working to bring Telemedicine to Concord Hospital and New Hampshire for the past several years.

Jackie Orent-Nathan, APRN, is a nurse practitioner who specializes in the management of chronic pain. She currently works for Derry Medical Center, working collaboratively with primary care providers, behavioral health professionals, wellness coaches, and physical therapists.

John Bassi, MD, is the current Medical Director at St. Paul's School, Concord, NH. As a Board Certified family physician, he has served in this position over the past 8 1/2 years, focusing on adolescent medicine and working with teens in all aspects of their medical, psychosocial, and emotional development.

Peter Loescher, MD, trained in family practice at Dartmouth-Hitchcock and Concord Hospital. He did his fellowship in sports medicine at the University of Oklahoma. He practiced rural medicine and sports medicine for 8 years at White River Family practice. He is currently medical director of Sharon Sports Medicine Center.

Laura Jones, ND, is a licensed and board certified naturopathic doctor. She owns and operates Whole Health Concord, a multi-practitioner naturopathic medical practice in Concord, NH. She earned a Doctorate in Naturopathic Medicine with Honors from Southwest College of Naturopathic Medicine in 2005.

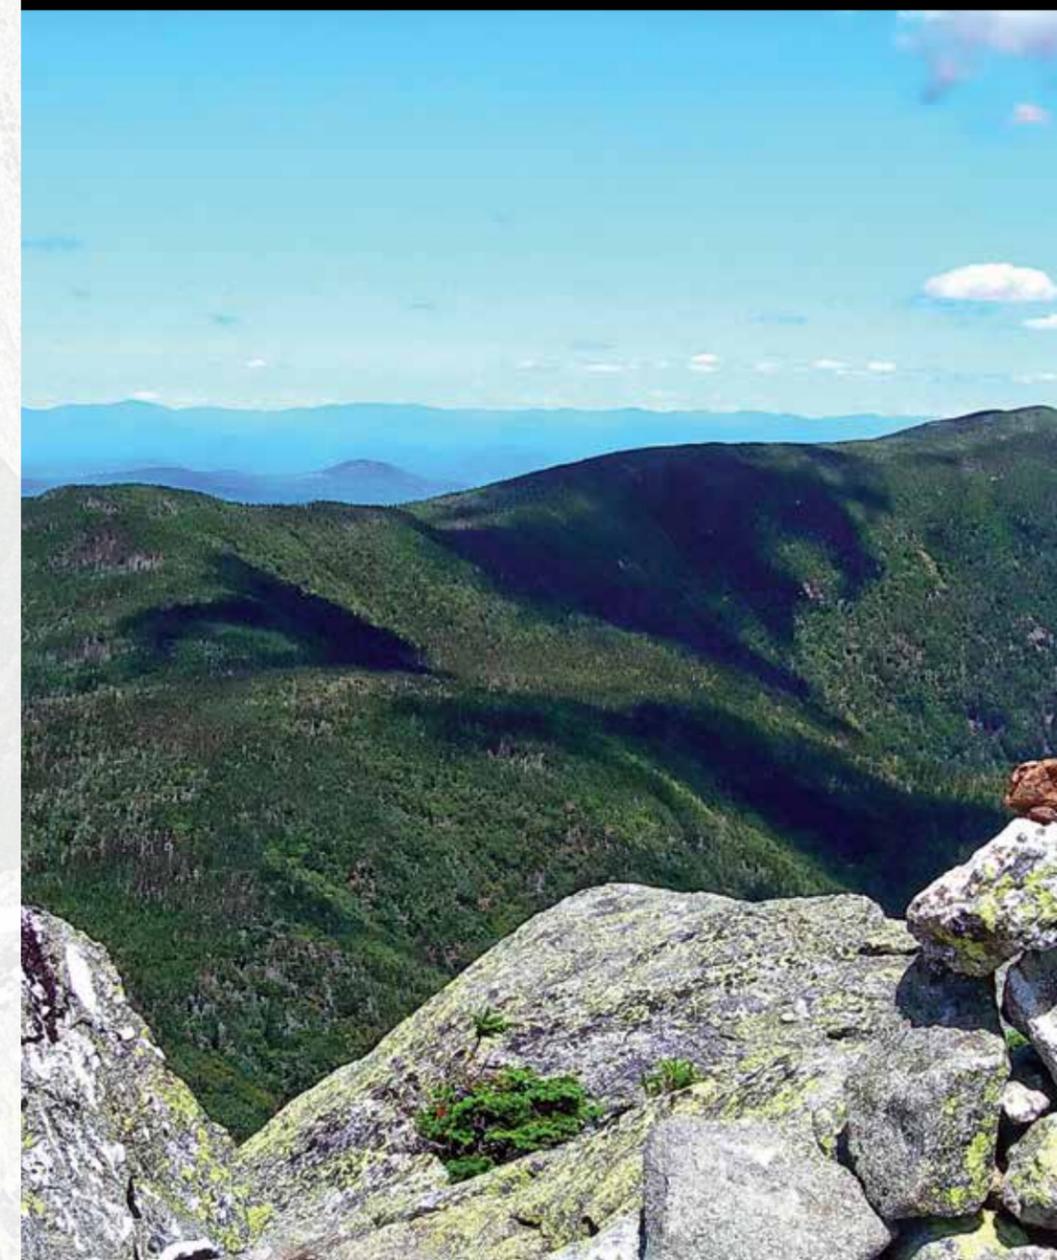

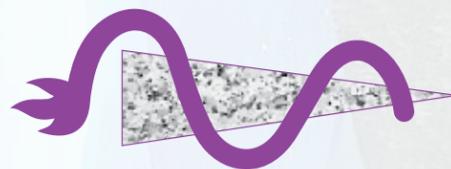

Polina Sayess, MD, is a Board Certified Family Medicine Physician. In addition to her full time job in an urgent care setting (currently with Frisbie Memorial Hospital), she has been representing NH at the AAFP National Conferences since 2014, and has served on the NH Medical Society Council since 2015.

Jay Gupta, RPh, is a medication management specialist and yoga therapist at the forefront of integrating yoga and mindfulness into healthcare. He lectures nationally on health-related topics. The National Alliance of State Pharmacy Associations has recognized his innovative work. He serves as chief faculty for RxRelax Therapeutic Yoga training.

Leah Matthew, MD, did her residency training and an Academic Development Fellowship at UVA in Charlottesville, Virginia. Since 2014, she has enjoyed a wonderful balance of seeing patients at the Heater Road clinic (part of DHMC) and teaching medical students in her roles as Family Medicine Clerkship Director and as an On Doctoring Facilitator.
